

THE WORLD. PAGE AFTER PAGE
eastwest

The Foundation Institute for Eastern Studies and Eastwest Magazine are honoured to invite you to

A presentation and discussion, in English, on:

Adriatic-Baltic-Black Sea: Visions of Cooperation.

Monday 23rd of October 2017 at 10:00

Via Alessandro Specchi, 16 Rome

Minerva Hall

The Three Seas Initiative is a project aimed at promoting and developing economic cooperation among the countries of Central and Eastern Europe. The aim of this project is to foster international cooperation on infrastructural development throughout the region. "Trimarium" is just beginning and may evolve in a number of ways. What are the possibilities? What is the best direction for the project to take?

- 10:00 Registration
- 10:20 Introduction to the Project:
Karolina Iskierka, Programme Manager for Italy,
Institute for Eastern Studies, Poland
- 10:30 Panel Presentation and Discussion

Speakers

Przemyslaw Zurawski Vel Grajewski, Counsellor of the Minister,
Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Poland, Poland
(author)

Andreana Baeva Motusic, President, European Business Association
Zagreb, Croatia (author)

Andrea Carteny, Director, CEMAS (Interdepartmental Center of Research and Cooperation with Mediterranean, Eurasia, Sub-Saharian Africa), University of Rome La Sapienza

Emilio D'Alessio, Spokesperson, Coordinamento Agende 21 Locali
Italiane

Paolo Quercia, Director, Center for Near Abroad Strategic Studies

Moderator

Matteo Tacconi, Independent Journalist and Editor of Eco di Varsavia

11:30 Q&A

RSVP: k.iskierka@isw.org.pl e theresa.lindo@eastwest.eu